FALL 2015  NEW COURSE OFFERING
WEDNESDAYS 4:00–6:50 PM
SOKIKU NAKATANI TEAROOM
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

ASIA 96: Section 1 85878
The Way of Chanoyu: An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Japanese Tea Gathering (3 UNITS)

Taught in collaboration with the University Library and the College of Social Science and Interdisciplinary Studies and the San Francisco Urasenke Foundation

• Experience traditional tea gatherings
• Seminar style and hands on instruction
• Presentations by scholars and researchers in the field
• Web-based learning
• Field experiences including the Asian Art Museum in San Francisco

Explore multiple aspects of the “way of tea” including the artistic, economic, scientific & health, socio-political and cultural dimensions associated with tea—